EQUITABLE COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT IN A POST-PANDEMIC WORLD: CENTERING BIPOC VOICES IN VIRTUAL AND HYBRID SPACES

WHAT WOULD TRULY EQUITABLE PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT LOOK LIKE?

Technology Options for Everyone

Community Powered, Community Centered

Safe and Accessible for All

Creative and Adaptive

Inclusive, Deep Connections

Continuous, Transparent Feedback Cycles

WHAT STRUCTURAL CHANGES ARE NEEDED TO ACHIEVE THIS?

- Adapting our institutions - shifts in power and control, trust building
- Investing in community leadership and technology
- Plans and policies for leveraging new technologies
- Continuous learning and adaptability

“Can we set clear metrics?”

“Professionals with courage to step back”

“We need an intentional break with the past and an acknowledgement of what was not working”

“Learning from the moment”

DESIGN LAB
JULY 14, 2021

This is Work in Progress
Let’s Continue the Conversation into Action & Contribute to New Communities of Practice